SPECIAL BONNIE RAITT WITH KEB 'MO' TICKETS WITH RECEPTION TO BENEFIT THE NATIVE AMERICAN RIGHTS FUND

BOULDER, CO – Bonnie Raitt has donated a number of very special, reserved Gold and Silver Circle tickets to the Native American Rights Fund to attend her upcoming August 29th show at Red Rocks Amphitheater in Morrison, Colorado. Gold Circle tickets will include prime reserved seating as well as a private post-show reception with Bonnie Raitt and special guest Keb'Mo'. The Silver Circle tickets will include prime reserved seating.

Bonnie Raitt & Keb'Mo' have participated in several benefit concerts and receptions for non-profit organizations who work to increase the Native American vote, stop the slaughter of the Yellowstone bison, and promote tribal economic development.

Ticket sale proceeds from the Gold and Silver Circle seats will go directly to the Native American Rights Fund (NARF). Information and tickets are available through NARF, toll free 1-800-447-0784, local 303-447-8760, or at www.narf.org, or to purchase directly go to www.guacfund.org

Gold Circle Tickets are $200 and Silver Circle are priced at $100 and are tax deductible to the extent allowed by law. Native American Rights Fund Executive Director, John Echohawk said, "Bonnie has been active in the preservation of tribal existence and the protection of tribal natural resources for many years. We are grateful to Bonnie for this partnership. We hope the local Colorado community will buy the Gold Circle tickets to meet a special woman and talented artist."

Development Director Don Ragona added, "Her generosity and willingness to aid the Native American Rights Fund on her latest tour is wonderful and much appreciated."
