5-01.010 Title.

This Chapter shall be known as and may be cited as the “Swinomish Criminal Traffic Code.”

[History] Ord. 175 (9/5/03).

5-02.020 Authority.

This Chapter is enacted pursuant to authority provided by Article VI, Section 1(k) and (l) of the Swinomish Constitution.

[History] Ord. 175 (9/5/03).

5-02.030 Definitions.

Words in this Chapter shall have the meaning given to them in Section 5-01.040 of this Title unless the context clearly indicates another meaning. If the meaning of a word is not clear, the Tribal Court shall construe the meaning of the word in harmony with the purpose of this Title.

[History] Ord. 175 (9/5/03).

5-02.040 Applicability of Criminal Procedures.

The Swinomish Rules of Criminal Procedure Chapter 3-03 shall apply to the offenses enumerated in this Chapter. The Tribal Court shall have jurisdiction in criminal traffic matters over tribal members and other Indians in accordance with Federal laws. Therefore “person” as used in this Chapter shall not include anyone who is not a member of or enrolled into a federally recognized tribe. Non-Indians shall be apprehended and prosecuted in accordance with applicable Federal and State law.

[History] Ord. 175 (9/5/03); Ord. 150 (11/7/01); Ord. 137 (6/9/99); Ord. 69A (2/7/90).

Subchapter I - Traffic Offenses

5-02.050 Failure to Appear/Respond.

Any person who willfully violates his or her written and signed promise to appear in Tribal Court or his or her written and signed promise to respond to a notice of civil traffic infraction or who fails to respond to a criminal traffic citation or civil traffic infraction whether or not he or she signed the citation, is guilty of a Class C offense.

[History] Ord. 175 (9/5/03); Ord. 137 (6/9/99); Ord. 69A (2/7/90).

5-02.060 Obedience to Enforcement Officers.

It shall be unlawful for any person to refuse or fail to comply with any lawful order, signal, or direction of any tribal enforcement officer, and any flagger or firefighter, who has authority to direct, control, or regulate traffic. A signal under this Section includes signals by hand, voice, siren, or emergency light. Violation of this Section is a Class C offense.

[History] Ord. 175 (9/5/03); Ord. 137 (6/9/99); Ord. 69A (2/7/90).

5-02.070 Refusal to Give Identification.

- (A) It shall be unlawful for any person while operating or in charge of a vehicle to refuse, when requested by an enforcement officer, to give his or her name and address and the name and address of the owner of the vehicle, or for such person to give false name and address.
- (B) It shall be unlawful for any person to refuse upon demand of such enforcement officer to produce:
 - (1) his or her certificate of license registration for the vehicle; and
 - (2) his or her vehicle operator’s license or his or her tribal enrollment identification card or to refuse to permit the officer to take any such license, certificate, or card for the purpose of examination thereof, or to refuse to permit the examination of any equipment of the vehicle or the weighing of the vehicle.

- (C) It shall be unlawful for any person to refuse or neglect to produce any identification listed in this Section when requested to do so by the Tribal Court.
- (D) Violation of this section is a Class C offense.

[History] Ord. 175 (9/5/03); Ord. 137 (6/9/99); Ord. 69A (2/7/90).

5-02.080 Vehicular Homicide.

- (A) When the death of any person ensues within three (3) years as a result of injury proximately caused by the driving of any person while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, as defined under Section 5-02.180, or by the operation of any vehicle in a reckless manner or with disregard for the safety of others, the person so operating such vehicle is guilty of vehicular homicide.
- (B) Vehicular homicide is a Class A offense.

[History] Ord. 175 (9/5/03); Ord. 137 (6/9/99); Ord. 69A (2/7/90).

5-02.090 Vehicular Assault.

- (A) A person is guilty of vehicular assault if he or she operates any vehicle:
 - (1) In a reckless manner, and his or her conduct is the proximate cause of serious bodily injury to another; or
 - (2) While under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, as defined by Section 5-02.180, and his or her conduct is the proximate cause of serious bodily injury to another.
- (B) “Serious bodily injury” in this Section means bodily injury that involves a substantial risk of death, serious permanent disfigurement, or protracted loss or impairment of any part or organ of the body.
- (C) Vehicular assault is a Class A offense.

[History] Ord. 175 (9/5/03); Ord. 137 (6/9/99); Ord. 69A (2/7/90).

5-02.100 Reckless Driving.

- (A) A person is guilty of reckless driving if he or she operates any vehicle:
 - (1) in willful or wanton disregard for the safety of persons or property; or
 - (2) exceeds the speed limit by more than twenty (20) miles per hour.
- (B) Reckless driving is a Class B offense.

[History] Ord. 175 (9/5/03); Ord. 137 (6/9/99); Ord. 69A (2/7/90).

5-02.110 Negligent Driving.

- (A) A person is guilty of negligent driving if he or she operates any vehicle in a manner as to endanger or be likely to endanger any person or property.
- (B) The offense of operating a vehicle in a negligent manner shall be a lesser offense than, but included in, the offense of operating a vehicle in a reckless manner, and any person charged with operating a vehicle in a reckless manner may be convicted of the lesser offense of operating a vehicle in a negligent manner.
- (C) Negligent driving is a Class C offense.

[History] Ord. 175 (9/5/03); Ord. 137 (6/9/99); Ord. 69A (2/7/90).

5-02.120 Willful Destruction of Vehicle.

- (A) Any person who shall willfully break, injure, tamper with, or remove any part of any motor vehicle for the purpose of injuring, defacing, or destroying such vehicle, or who temporarily or permanently prevents its useful operation without the consent of the owner of such motor vehicle shall be guilty of willful destruction of a vehicle.
- (B) Willful destruction of a vehicle is a Class C offense.
- (C) The Tribal Court may order the defendant to pay restitution in addition to any fine or jail time imposed.

[History] Ord. 175 (9/5/03); Ord. 137 (6/9/99); Ord. 69A (2/7/90).

5-02.130 Attempting to Elude Pursuing Police Vehicle.

- (A) Any driver of any vehicle who willfully fails or refuses to immediately bring his or her vehicle to a stop after being given a visual or audible signal to bring the vehicle to a stop by an enforcement officer is guilty of attempting to elude a police vehicle.

- (B) The signal given by the enforcement officer may be by emergency light or siren.
- (C) Attempting to elude a police vehicle is a Class B offense.

[History] Ord. 175 (9/5/03); Ord. 137 (6/9/99); Ord. 69A (2/7/90).

Subchapter II - Alcohol and Drug Related Offenses

5-02.180 Driving Under the Influence (D.U.I.).

- (A) A person is guilty of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug if the person drives a vehicle within the boundaries of the Swinomish Indian Reservation and:
- (1) The person has, within two (2) hours after driving, an alcohol concentration of 0.08 or higher as shown by analysis of the person's breath or blood made under Section 5-02.210;

- (2) While the person is under the influence of or affected by intoxicating liquor or any drug; or
 - (3) While the person is under the combined influence of or affected by intoxicating liquor and any drug.
- (B) The fact that a person charged with a violation of this Section is or has been entitled to use a drug under the laws of a state shall not constitute a defense against a charge of violating this Section.
- (C) It is an affirmative defense to a violation of Subsection (A)(1) of this Section that the defendant consumed a sufficient quantity of alcohol after the time of driving and before the administration of an analysis of the person's breath or blood to cause the defendant's alcohol concentration to be 0.08 or more within two (2) hours after driving. The defendant must prove the defense by a preponderance of the evidence. The Court shall not admit evidence of this defense unless the defendant notifies the prosecution prior to the pretrial hearing in the case of the defendant's intent to assert the affirmative defense.
- (D) Analyses of blood or breath samples obtained more than two (2) hours after the alleged driving may be used as evidence that within two (2) hours of the alleged driving, a person had an alcohol concentration of 0.08 or more in violation of Subsection (A)(1) of this Section, and in any case in which the analysis shows an alcohol concentration above 0.00 may be used as evidence that a person was under the influence of or affected by intoxicating liquor or any drug in violation of Subsection (A) (2) or (3) of this Section.
- (E) Any person who violates this section shall, when convicted, be subject to the penalties of Section 5-02.250.

[History] Ord. 175 (9/5/03); Ord. 137 (6/9/99); Ord. 69A (2/7/90).

5-02.190 Driver Under Twenty-one Consuming Alcohol – Penalties.

- (A) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Chapter, a person is guilty of driving a motor vehicle after consuming alcohol if the person operates a motor vehicle within the boundaries of the Swinomish Indian Reservation and the person:
- (1) Is under the age of twenty-one (21); and
 - (2) Has, within two (2) hours after operating the motor vehicle, an alcohol concentration of 0.02 or more, as shown by analysis of the person's breath or blood made under Section 5-02.230.

- (B) It is an affirmative defense to a violation of Subsection (A) of this Section that the defendant consumed a sufficient quantity of alcohol after the time of driving and before the administration of an analysis of the person's breath or blood to cause the defendant's alcohol concentration to be 0.02 or more within two (2) hours after driving. The defendant must prove the defense by a preponderance of the evidence. The Court shall not admit evidence of this defense unless the defendant notifies the prosecution prior to the earlier of: (1) seven (7) days prior to trial; or (2) the pretrial hearing in the case of the defendant's intent to assert the affirmative defense.
- (C) Analyses of blood or breath samples obtained more than two (2) hours after the alleged driving may be used as evidence that within two (2) hours of the alleged driving, a person had an alcohol concentration of 0.02 or more in violation of Subsection (A) of this Section.
- (D) A violation of this Section is a Class C offense.

[History] Ord. 175 (9/5/03); Ord. 137 (6/9/99).

5-02.200 Physical Control Of Vehicle While Under The Influence.

- (A) A person is guilty of being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug if the person has actual physical control of a vehicle with the boundaries of the Swinomish Indian Reservation and:
 - (1) The person has, within two (2) hours after being in actual physical control of the vehicle, an alcohol concentration of 0.08 or higher as shown by analysis of the person's breath or blood made under Section 5-02.210, or
 - (2) While the person is under the influence of or affected by intoxicating liquor or any drug; or
 - (3) While the person is under the combined influence of or affected by intoxicating liquor and any drug.
- (B) The fact that a person charged with a violation of this Section is or has been entitled to use a drug under the laws of a state does not constitute a defense against any charge of violating this Section.
- (C) No person may be convicted under this Section if, prior to being pursued by a law enforcement officer, the person has moved the vehicle safely off the roadway.
- (D) It is an affirmative defense to a violation of Subsection (A)(1) of this Section that the defendant consumed a sufficient quantity of alcohol after the time of being in actual physical control of the vehicle and before the administration of an analysis of the person's breath or blood to cause the defendant's alcohol concentration to be 0.08 or more within two (2) hours after being in such control. The defendant must prove the defense by a preponderance of the evidence. The Court shall not admit evidence of this defense unless the defendant notifies the prosecution prior to the pretrial hearing in the case of the defendant's intent to assert the affirmative defense.

- (E) Analyses of blood or breath samples obtained more than two (2) hours after the alleged being in actual physical control of a vehicle may be used as evidence that within two (2) hours of the alleged being in such control, a person had an alcohol concentration of 0.00 or more in violation of Subsection (A)(1) of this Section, and in any case in which the analysis shows an alcohol concentration above 0.08 may be used as evidence that a person was under the influence of or affected by intoxicating liquor or any drug in violation of Subsection (A) (2) or (3) of this Section.
- (F) Any person who violates this Section shall, when convicted, be subject to the penalties in Section 5-02.250.

[History] Ord. 175 (9/5/03); Ord. 137 (6/9/99); Ord. 69A (2/7/90).

5-02.210 Implied Consent – License Sanctions for Test Refusal – Procedures.

- (A) Any person who operates a motor vehicle within the boundaries of the Reservation is deemed to have given consent, subject to the provisions of Section 5-02.230, to a test or tests of his or her breath or blood for the purpose of determining the alcohol concentration or presence of any drug in his or her breath or blood if arrested for any offense where, at the time of the arrest, the arresting officer has reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug or was in violation of Section 5-02.190.
- (B) The test or tests of breath shall be administered at the direction of a law enforcement officer having reasonable grounds to believe the person was driving or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle within the boundaries of the Swinomish Indian Reservation while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or the person was driving or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while having alcohol in a concentration of 0.02 or more in his or her system and being under the age of twenty-one (21). However, in those instances where the person is incapable due to physical injury, physical incapacity, or other physical limitation, of providing a breath sample or where the person is being treated in a hospital, clinic, doctor's office, emergency medical vehicle, ambulance, or other similar facility in which a breath testing instrument is not present or where the officer has reasonable grounds to believe the - person is under the influence of a drug, a blood test shall be administered by a qualified person as provided in Section 5-02.230(E). The officer shall inform the person of his or her right to refuse the breath or blood test, and of his or her right to have additional tests administered by any qualified person of his or her choosing as provided in Section 5-02.230. The officer shall warn the driver that:

- (1) His or her license, permit, or privilege to drive may be revoked or denied if he or she refuses to submit to the test;
 - (2) His or her license, permit, or privilege to drive may be suspended, revoked, denied, or placed in probationary status if the test is administered and the test indicates the alcohol concentration of the person's breath or blood is 0.08 or more, in the case of a person age twenty-one (21) or over, or 0.02 or more in the case of a person under age twenty-one (21); and
 - (3) His or her refusal to take the test may be used in a criminal trial.
- (C) Except as provided in this Section, the test administered shall be of the breath only. If an individual is unconscious or is under arrest for the crime of vehicular homicide as provided in Section 5-02.080 or vehicular assault as provided in Section 5-02.090, or if an individual is under arrest for the crime of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs as provided under Section 5-02.180, which arrest results from an accident in which there has been serious bodily injury to another person, a breath or blood test may be administered without the consent of the individual so arrested.
- (D) Any person who is dead, unconscious, or who is otherwise in a condition rendering him or her incapable of refusal, shall be deemed not to have withdrawn the consent provided by Subsection (A) of this Section and the test or tests may be administered, subject to the provisions of Section 5-02.230, and the person shall be deemed to have received the warnings required under Subsection (B) of this Section.
- (E) If, following his or her arrest and receipt of warnings under Subsection (B) of this Section, the person arrested refuses upon the request of a law enforcement officer to submit to a test or tests of his or her breath or blood, no test shall be given except as authorized under Subsections (C) or (D) of this Section.
- (F) If, after arrest and after the other applicable conditions and requirements of this Section have been satisfied, a test or tests of the person's blood or breath is administered and the test results indicate that the alcohol concentration of the person's breath or blood is 0.08 or more if the person is age twenty-one (21) or over, or is 0.02 or more if the person is under twenty-one (21), or the person refuses to submit to a test, the arresting officer or other law enforcement officer at whose direction any test has been given (or the department, where applicable, if the arrest results in a test of the person's blood) may:

- (1) Serve notice in writing on the person on behalf of the Tribe of its intention to request that the Washington Department of Licensing suspend, revoke, deny, or place in probationary status the person's license, permit, or privilege to drive;
- (2) Serve notice in writing on the person on behalf of the Washington Department of Licensing of his or her right to a hearing, specifying the steps he or she must take to obtain a hearing;
- (3) Mark the person's Washington state driver's license or permit to drive, if any, in a manner authorized by the Washington Department of Licensing;
- (4) Serve notice in writing that the marked license or permit, if any, is a temporary license that is valid for sixty (60) days from the date of arrest or from the date notice has been given in the event notice is given following a blood test, or until the suspension, revocation, or denial of the person's license, permit, or privilege to drive is sustained at a hearing, whichever occurs first. No temporary license is valid to any greater degree than the license or permit that it replaces; and
- (5) Immediately notify the Washington Department of Licensing of the arrest and transmit to the department within seventy-two (72) hours, except as delayed as the result of a blood test, a sworn report or report that states:
 - (a) That the officer had reasonable grounds to believe the arrested person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle within the Reservation while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs, or both, or was under the age of twenty-one (21) years and had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while having an alcohol concentration of 0.02 or more;
 - (b) That after receipt of the warnings required by Subsection (B) of this Section the person refused to submit to a test of his or her blood or breath, or a test was administered and the results indicated that the alcohol concentration of the person's breath or blood was 0.08 or more if the person is age twenty-one (21) or over, or was 0.02 or more if the person is under the age of twenty-one (21); and

- (c) Any other information that the director of the Washington Department of Licensing may require by rule.

[History] Ord. 175 (9/5/03); Ord. 137 (6/9/99); Ord. 69A (2/7/90).

5-02.220 Implied Consent – Length of License Sanctions.

Pursuant to Section 5-02.210, the Tribe may request that the Washington State Department of Licensing suspend, revoke, or deny the arrested person's license, permit, or privilege to drive as follows:

- (A) In the case of a person who has refused a test or tests:
 - (1) For a first refusal within five (5) years, where there has not been a previous incident within five (5) years that resulted in a conviction under this section, revocation or denial for one (1) year.
 - (2) For a second or subsequent refusal within five (5) years, or for a first refusal where there has been one or more previous incidents within five (5) years that have resulted in a conviction under this Section, revocation or denial for two (2) years or until the person reaches age twenty-one (21), whichever is longer.
 - (3) A revocation imposed under this Subsection (A)(2) shall run consecutively to the period of any suspension, revocation, or denial imposed pursuant to a criminal conviction arising out of the same incident.
- (B) In the case of an incident where a person over the age of twenty-one (21) has submitted to or been administered a test or tests indicating that the alcohol concentration of the person's breath or blood was 0.08 or more:
 - (1) For a first incident within five (5) years, where there has not been a previous incident within five (5) years that resulted in a conviction under this Section, placement in probationary status;
 - (2) For a second or subsequent incident within five (5) years, revocation or denial for two (2) years.
- (C) In the case of an incident where a person under age twenty-one (21) has submitted to or been administered a test or test indicating that the alcohol concentration of the person's breath or blood was 0.02 or more:

- (1) For a first incident within five (5) years, suspension or denial for ninety (90) days; or
- (2) For a second or subsequent incident within five (5) years, revocation or denial for one (1) year or until the person reaches age twenty-one (21), whichever is longer.

5-02.230 Persons Under Influence of Intoxicating Liquor or Drug – Evidence – Tests – Information Concerning Tests.

- (A) Upon the trial of any civil or criminal action or proceeding arising out of acts alleged to have been committed by any person while driving or in actual physical control a vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, if the person's alcohol concentration is less than 0.08, it is evidence that may be considered with other competent evidence in determining whether the person was under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug.
- (B) The breath analysis shall be based upon grams of alcohol per two hundred ten (210) liters of breath.
- (C) The foregoing provisions of this Section shall not be construed as limiting the introduction of any other competent evidence bearing upon the question whether the person was under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug.
- (D) Analysis of the person's blood or breath to be considered valid under the provisions of this Section or Sections 5-02.180 or 5-02.190 or 5-02.200 shall have been performed according to methods approved by the Washington State toxicologist and by an individual possessing a valid permit issued by the Washington State toxicologist for this purpose.
- (E) When a blood test is administered under the provisions of Section 5-02.210, the withdrawal of blood for the purpose of determining its alcoholic or drug content may be performed only by a physician, a registered nurse, or a qualified technician. This limitation shall not apply to the taking of breath specimens.
- (F) The person tested may have a physician, or a qualified technician, chemist, registered nurse, or other qualified person of his or her own choosing administer one or more tests in addition to any administered at the direction of a law enforcement officer. The failure or inability to obtain an additional test by a person shall not preclude the admission of evidence relating to the test or tests taken at the direction of a law enforcement officer.

- (G) Upon the request of the person who shall submit to a test or tests at the request of a law enforcement officer, full information concerning the test or tests shall be made available to him or her or his or her attorney.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

Field Sobriety Tests 1

Horizontal Gaze Nystagmus 2

Portable Breath Test 3

1. Field Sobriety Tests

Field sobriety test is not a search; therefore, federal and Swinomish statutory protections against unreasonable searches do not apply. SITC v. George, CR-CO-2005-0015 (Swinomish Tribal Ct. April 13, 2006).

A police officers failure to check an appropriate box on a DUI arrest report form is not sufficient, per se, to warrant suppression of field sobriety test results. SITC v. George, CR-CO-2005-0015 (Swinomish Tribal Ct. April 13, 2006).

2. Horizontal Gaze Nystagmus

Horizontal Gaze Nystagmus testing is sufficiently reliable to meet the threshold requirements for admissibility. SITC v. George, CR-CO-2005-0015 (Swinomish Tribal Ct. April 13, 2006).

3. Portable Breath Test

Portable Breath Test results are not admissible as evidence of intoxication at trial, but may be utilized, under proper procedures, to establish probable cause for arrest. SITC v. George, CR-CO-2005-0015 (Swinomish Tribal Ct. April 13, 2006).
